Designed by chefs, Copperpot dips are manufactured to a superior quality, combining authentic tastes with meticulous preparation.

So good you could call them your own.

-  Real ingredients you can see
-  Produced fresh daily with a stable shelf-life
-  Ready to use without the preparation and labour costs
-  Reduced waste or the need for a multitude of ingredients

They provide the perfect solution to food preparation for anyone associated with the foodservice industry – restaurants, hotels, cafes, caterers and food manufacturers.

More than Dips!

The extensive range of flavours provides food professionals with some exciting alternatives in meal preparation. They have the versatility to be used as value-added ingredients.

Extend the usage occasion beyond a trio of dips;

-  a tasty base for pasta sauce
-  added flavour to salad dressing
-  ideal spread on a baguette or focaccia and
-  a flavoursome sauce for chicken, steak and seafood

The Chunkies range is perfect to simply stir through freshly cooked pasta, as a delicious pesto.

Copperpot is renowned for its consistently high quality dips, using the best available ingredients to deliver fresh tastes with real food.
